

CAUTION

The Probation Board for Northern Ireland will report to the Police:

1. Information regarding the commission of an offence.
2. Information that is likely to secure the apprehension, prosecution or conviction to that offence.

If you provide such information then either:

1. You will be asked to report it to the police; or
2. Probation will report it to the Police with your consent; or
3. Probation will report it to the Police in line with disclosure policy.
